Tricia Staible Named President of Robinson Fans, Inc.

It is with great excitement we announce the promotion of Tricia Staible to President of Robinson Fans Inc. as of June 20th, 2016. With Tricia's elevation to President, she will oversee the day-to-day operations of the company, while Carl Staible will remain in the position of CEO and Chairman of the Board.

"With Tricia taking an increased responsibility in the daily running of the company, I am looking forward to spending more time on the strategic growth and overall development of Robinson Fans," said Carl Staible.

Since joining the company in 2008, Tricia has served in a variety of roles that have allowed her to develop a broad knowledge across all operations of the business. She has served as Marketing and Risk Manager, General Counsel, Vice President of Sales and Executive Vice President prior to accepting her new position. While rising through the ranks, Staible was able to not only gain additional responsibilities but experience and increased inclusion in strategic planning and the decision making processes.

"I still have a lot to learn, but am eager and motivated to continue the work that has been implemented here at Robinson," Tricia Staible added. "We have a lot of opportunities moving forward, and am excited to pursue them with our team."

Robinson Fans looks forward to continued success and growth as a company and appreciates the support and dedication of its employees, customers, vendors and partners.
